Serious Damage to the Railroad-The Bridge at Clarksburg Swept Away.

From the Clarksburg Telegraph of Friday.
On Thesday evening last the section of country adjoining the railroad in Ritchie, Doddridge and part of Harrison country, adjoining the railroad in Ritchie, Doddridge and part of Harrison country, as sisted by a most terrific rainstorm, overflowing the banks of all the streams, washing away fences and doing a large amount of damage to the crops. We noticed a number of corn fields that were entirely destroyed together with several fine meadows, which had promised a few hours pravious an abundant yield of grass. We passed through the section visited by the storm on Wednesday afternoon, and observed the household effects of several families piled up on the hill-sides. Streams which on Tuesday afternoon were almost dry rose in a few hours as high as twenty feet, the water coming with a perfect rush carrying everything before it. At Greenland Station a culvert was washed away and the rosal damaged to a considerable extent. At West Union the railroad bridge was damaged pretty severely by drift lodging against the pier, which forced it from its position, breaking some of the braces, etc., but not injuring its sufficient to prevent the crossing of the cars. The railroad bridge across the West Fork River at this piace, was entirely demolished, nothing remaining but a few shaftered pieces of timber. The destruction of this bridge will interfere very materially with travel on the Branch Road, but we hope that the company will be able to replace it in a short time. At this time we are unable to make any estimate of the amount of damage done to the railroad and those llying along it will amount to several thousand dollars.

The Scheme of Endersing for Cuba. From the Clarksburg Telegraph of Friday.

The Scheme of Endorsing for Cuba.

Telegram to the Cincinnati Commercial

Washingron, July 16.

I have positive information that Socretary Fish thoroughly indorses, and, in fact, originated, the scheme for the solution of the Cuban question, mentioned in these dispatches last night, which provides that the Cubans shall buy the island for themselves, from Spain, and that the United States shall indorse the bonds for the purchase money, or otherwise assist the Cubans in rasing the necessary funds.

I also have equally positive information that President Grant declared to a prominent Cuban sympathiser, a few days since, his intention not to allow the Iron-clads built for Spain, in this country, to sail. His exact words I am unable to give, but, in effect, he promised that the iron-clads should not be used against the revolutionists. Thereforett is probable that as soonlas he re-Telegram to the Cincinnati Commercial

WASHINGTON, July 16.

In the argot of the "ring" and "sports" there are many expressive phrases. The "light," or "feather rweights," are among them. They are picturesque terms, illustrating their meaning by their sound, even. We are threatened with a family of this nature, remulias in Democratic influences are threatened with a family of this nature, Families in Democratic influences as always obstacles. Now in that of the one referred to, it is the number of its members that make it formidable. It is certainly better to be born lucky than rich. The old proverb is forcibly illustrated in the case of the family of the estimable lady who now presides at the White House. A New England Senator is credited, with the honor embodled in a referencence to General Dent, "as only a dent," and therefore not to be noticed. But, with all their family connections, there are so many Buckhankon wants to be a "summer resort." The News descants on its advantages thusly:

For beauty of scenery, it cannot be surpassed, and this section of the country is healthy in a pre-eminent degree; tiles so high that the weather is but seldom oppressively hot; the society of both town and country is noted for its hospitality and morality. There is hotot room sufficient for hundreds, besides private boarding houses. Those who are fond of sport, can find plenty of game in the woods, while the waters abound in fish, and but fow miles from town the delicious mountain trout are caught in large numbers. In addition of all this, Buckhannon is not situated on a railroad, which we consider to be a great advantage for a summer refeart. Query: Wouldn't it be a pity then to spoil such a charming summer refreat by building that West Virginia Rali road?
